VOL. IX. NO. 62.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, MARCH 13, 1903.

PRICE 5 CENTS

ENTER SARATOGA SPECIAL

The subscribers in the Saratoga Special up to Wednesday last are: J. G. Lyman, L Waterbury, P. H. McCarren, E. R. Bradley, J. A. Drake, M. Murphy, J. Sanford, J. E. Widener, A. Belmont, W. B. Leeds, Sydney Paget, J. Fleischmann, R. T. Wilson, Jr., D. Gideon, E. E. Smathers, J. R. Keene, J. W. Schorr, S, S. Brown, W. C. Whitney and P. J. Dwyer.

Mr. Belmont and Mr. Whitney have each taken two subscriptions

The men yet to hear from, whom the officers of the Saratoga Association feel reas-onably sure will subscribe, are Green B. Morris, W. B. Jennings, John E. Madden, M. H. Tichenor, Col. J. E. Pepper of Lexington, and M. Ziegler of Cincinnati. Captain Brown also may take two subscriptions. His stable of two-year-olds at Mobile is the most numerous one on the American turf, with one or two exceptions. Peter Wimmer, who has in charge, says also that it is one of the est. Several of the youngsters are of Capbest. tain Brown's own breeding, but the majority cost big prices at the yearling sales of the great Tennessee, Kentucky and California stock farms

Five of the subscribers of last year who will not come in this year are H. K. Knapp, secretary of the Saratoga Association; Andrew Miller, its treasurer; F. R. Hitchcock, vice-president; J. G. Follansbee and J. J. McCafferty. None of them has any two-yearolds that have shown enough speed and class in fall and early spring trials to take a $1,000 chance in such a race as the Saratoga Special, in which it is a certainty all of the crack two-year-olds of the country will compete. Mr. Miller, however, will have an in-terest in the horses that bear Mr. Leeds name. They are partners in the ownership of nearly every horse in Mr. Miller's stable, two-year-olds and older campaigners.

When all returns are in, Mr. Earlocher is confident that the Special will show a total of twenty-eight or thirty subscriptions, representing twenty-six or twenty-eight different stables. Twenty-six subscriptions would exceed the record of last year and the year before, and insure a value of between $18, one and $20,000 to the Special. It is pretty nearly a certainty, taking into account all possible casualties, that a field of twelve or fifteen horses will start in the Special. Because of its sportmanslike character it is rapidly becoming the most popular two-yearold race on the American turf.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Entres for many of the stakes to be deeided at Saratoga this year, closed last Monday, and enough of them were received showthat racing at the Spa next August will be better than ever. Up to a late hour in the afternoon, however, W. C. Whitney, August Belmont, J. E. Madden, G. B. Morris, Haggin, J. W. Schorr, J. R. & F. P. Keene and other large nominators had not been It will take several days to heard from. complete the list.

E. E. Smathers has entered McChesney in the Saratoga Handicap, the Saratoga Cup, the Champion, the Champlain Stakes, the Merchants' and Citizens' Handicap and the Delaware Handicap. He will also start Dick Bernard, his new two-year-old, in the Saratoga Special. L. V. Bell has also entered Hermis in the Saratoga Handicap, the Champion, the Champlain and the Merchants' and Citizens', so that there may be a meeting be tween these great four-year-olds, irrespective of a match race. Mr. Bell has entered Francesco and Colonel Bill in the Saratoga Handicap, Champlain and Merchants' and Citizens and Colonel Bill in the Champion Stakes. A. Drake has nominated Savable. Wyeth. Runnels, High Chancellor and Von Rouse for the Saratoga Handicap, Cup and Champion

F. R. Hitchcock has named Grey Friar for Saratoga Handicap, Cup and Champion Stakes and P. J. Dwyer has entered Merry Acrobat and Memphis for the same events C. R. Ellison has not entered any of his horses for the Saratoga Handicap, but he has named Skilful, Harry New and Captain Arnold for the Merchants' and Citizens' and the Delaware. W. C. Rollins' Herbert is entered for the Merchants' and Citizens' Handicap, which he won last year. The Sanfords have Chuctanunda and Rock Water in the Saratoga Handicap, Champion and Champlain Handicap.

The grandstand at the Coney Island Jockey Club's course at Sheepshead Bay is undergoing extensive repairs in anticipation of the coming season. As a matter of fact, the stand will be virtually rebuilt from top to bottom and from end to end before the work is finished. Every timber, every plank and every portion of the wood work of the great structure that shows the slightest sign of wear or decay will be replaced by new material, so that when the great crowd assembles at the course to witness the running of the Suburban Handicap this year it will oc-cupy a virtually new stand. "It is one of the greatest cares of the Coney Island Jockey Club," says Superintendent Clarke, "to have the grandstand in perfect order and absolutely safe every year. Not a timber or board that is in the least worn is allowed to remain from one year to another."

Secretary R. W. Whistler, of the Maryland Hunt Cup Association, has called attention to an amendment of the rules of the assotion which will be of interset to all identified with this partcular sport.

The amended rule follows:

The race for the Maryland Hunt Cup shall be open only to owners and riders who are members of recognized hunt clubs in the United States and the Dominion of Canada, who are acceptable to the committee steward or stewards and otherwise qualified under these rules." The steeplechase for the Maryland Hunt

Cup was organized in 1894, for the advancement of the hunter or cross country horse in Maryland, and up to the present time has been virtually confined to the horses and riders of that state. The race having been thus run for nine consecutive years, it is believed that the primary object of the promoters has been attained and it would be well to open it so that members of all recognized hunts can compete if they desire.

The race is run over an absolutely natural country of four measured miles (the location being changed from year to year, according to condition of crops, etc.), and is distinctly marked by flags. Riders and owners can at all times walk over the course from time of flagging to familiarize themselves with it.

The cup is a silver tankard of old English design, surmounted by the coat of arms of Maryland, value $100. The coming race, NEW ORLEANS FORM CHART.

Winner—Ch. c, by Knight of Ellerslie—Flash in the Pan (trained by H. T. Griffin). Went to post at 2:59. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Embarrassment outclassed the field, showed the most speed and won in a canter after being eased up all of the last furlong. War Cry ran in improved form, raced Hand Organ to defeat and had enough left to stall off a challenge from Handspinner in the stretch run. The latter stumbled on the backstretch and lost considerable ground by the mishap.

Overweights—Pirate, 3 pounds.

Went to post at 2:38. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Instar, lucky at the start and with clear sailing, wore the leaders down in the stretch run and won going away. Vonzollern forced the pace throughout and ran in improved form. Pickaway finished with a rush and ran a surprisingly good race. Toto Gratiot worked a rough journey and was going resolutely at the end. Sir Preston appeared big and high, displayed his usual early speed and held on in improved fashion. Went to post at 3:27. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Escalante, in rare form and lucky at start, was reserved to the stretch, where he closed up with a rush and wore E. M. Brattain down at the end. The latter displayed phenomenal speed and held on gamely, but the excessive early use beat him. Hainault came with a belated rush at the end and W. Waldo was indefinitely suspended for his suspicious looking effort. Pope Leo was crowded out on the stretch turn, but finished fast and ran a surprisingly good race. Meehanus, practically left, closed up an immense gap. Sweet Tooth, handicapped by the soft going, ran well for a half and appears to be in good form.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Although it was expected that last week would bring about a final settlement of the Kenilworth race track tangle at Buffalo, lit-tle of anything was accomplished, and as a result there will hardly be a summer meeting at that handsome course this year. Probably a meet will be arranged for this fall, in the event of the track being sold, but if there is it will be similar to the one held last year. From present indications the referee will not give his report in the case until next month, at which time it is expected the corporation will be rendered insolvent, which will permit of its being placed on the block. The past was spent in arriving at the total indebtedness of the plant, which, as has been previously published, was found to be in the neighborhood of $100,000. All of the claims against the corporation were filed at the meetings held last week. The only thing wished is that the concern be declared insolvent, and then it will be put up at auction.

R. W. Carter, manager for Mrs. Allien, proprietor of the Rancocas Stock Farm. announces several recent purchases: "We have just purchased from Joseph E. Widener, "We have just Philadelphia, Pa., Holly Queen, gr. f, 2, by The Sailor Prince—Elizabeth, by Rayon Philadelphia, Pa., Holly Queen, gr. 1, 2, by The Sailor Prince—Elizabeth, by Rayon d'Or," says Mr. Carter. "From the estate of John McCloskey, Erdenheim Stud, Pa., we bought Iuka, ch. m, 20, by Reform—Sister of Mercy, by War Dance; Sea Puss, ch. m, 8, by Crealed Hytelke by Greenland-Hutoka, by Reform - Maggie B. B.; Miss Nellie, ch. m, 12, by Fellowcraft— Hanap (grandam of Elizabeth M.), by King We have five foals to date, among them very nice chestnut filly by Standing-Miss Lois, by Tea Tray. There are forty-nine yearlings on the farm, and I consider them the most promising lot we have bred since 1896, when we produced Caiman, Sibola, Myak-ka, Tarolinta, etc. They include full brothers to Caiman, Petra II., Diakka and Jouvence, and full sisters to Dr. Walker, Tantalus Cup, Luetitia, Monte Carlo and Sir Christopher.

Among the owners that will try for the classic Kentucky Derby on May 2 will be J. W. Schorr and J. F. Schorr, father and son, both of whon have proved important factors oughbreds.

in the settlement of western stakes on many Since midsummer of last racing the junior Schorr has campaigned tracks. season the junior Schorr has campaigned in colors of his own, started and trained his own horses, and has commenced the present season very auspiciously by winning the California Oaks with Esherin, a filly by the dead sire Esher. Esherin is at present in dead sire Esher. Esherin is at present in California, with the remainder of the string belonging to young Schorr, but she will be shipped to St. Louis in a few weeks, and from there she will be sent to Louisville, to be prepared for her engagements in the Kentucky Derby and Oaks.

Though prejudice and general feeling among horsemen invariably is against fillies winning derbies in the spring of the year, both the senior and junior Schorr think that each has a chance to break the long losing spell that has always attended the running of Schorr candidates that started for Kentucky derbies of the past. Schorr, Sr., has Rightful and Spencer Reif entered, and Rightful will probably be the elder man's representative in the race, while Schorr, Jr. depend on Esherin and probably Gold Bell, although present prospects point to the filly carrying alone the son's "scarlet, blue 'S' on back, blue hoops and blue cap.

E. E. Smathers, the new owner of McChes ney, is having trouble in finding suitable horses with which to re-enforce his small horses with which to re-enforce his small but select string. His agents, having been commissioned to buy crack colts or fillies, have searched the southern tracks, and though several promising two-year-olds and Derby candidates have been offered for sale, the amount wanted has been invertible to the amount wanted has been invariably too steep for Smathers' agents. Gilfain, the three-year-old son of Locohatchee - Dolores, and an eligible for the American Derby, was and an engine for the sale and that B. J. priced, and it is understood that B. J. ningham, Gilfain's present owner, set f figures of $10,000 as a minimum amount for his property. Considering that Gilfain started but eight times last year, winning two races, one of which he was returned as conqueror of McChesney, the price asked is considered by owners and trainers as a high-water mark which can only be met by millionaires who are not particular about the price of thor-

Winner—Ch. f, by Inspector B.—Ogarita (trained by J. S. Ward).

Went to post at 2:38. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Instar, lucky at the start and with clear sailing, wore the leaders down in the stretch run and won going away. Vonzollern forced the pace throughout and ran in improved form. Pickaway finished with a rush and ran a surprisingly good race. Toto Gratiot worked a rough journey and was going resolutely at the end. Sir Preston appeared big and high, displayed his usual early speed and held on in improved fashion. Tuckback made up much ground in the last half. Blue Miracle was away badly. Brennus was repeatedly interfered with. So So and Swiftwing displayed early speed.

Winner—Ch. c, by Amigo—Colonias (trained by W. J. Speirs).

Went to post at 3:27. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Escalante, in rare form and lucky at start, was reserved to the stretch, where he closed up with a rush and wore E. M. Brattain down at the end. The latter displayed phenomenal speed and held on gamely, but the excessive early use beat him. Hainault came with a belated rush at the end and W. Waldo was indefinitely suspended for his suspicious looking effort. Pope Leo was crowded out on the stretch turn, but finished fast and ran a surprisingly good race. Meehanus, practically left, closed up an immense gap. Sweet Tooth, handicapped by the soft going, ran well for a half and appears to be in good form.

Went to post at 3:55. At post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. James F., away badly and interfered with on the first turn, closed up a great gap and joined Stunts on the stretch turn and outstayed him after a long drive. He was easily the best and had to be with his incapable jockey. Stunts beat the barrier, made the most of his advantage and stood a long drive gamely. Mr. Dingle was reserved for the first six furlongs and finished with a rush. Urchin ran as if stale and was beaten off. Past Master, all but left, made up ten lengths on the leaders and is worth remembering. Harry Thatcher ran a bad race.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Although it was expected that last week would bring about a final settlement of the Kenilworth race track tangle at Buffalo, little of anything was accomplished, and as a result there will hardly be a summer meeting at that handsome course this year. Probably a meet will be arranged for this fall, in the event of the track being sold, but if there is it will be similar to the one held last year. From present indications the referee will not give his report in the case until next month, at which time it is expected the corporation will be rendered insolvent, which will permit of its being placed on the block. The past week was spent in arriving at the total in-debtedness of the plant, which, as has been previously published, was found to be in the neighborhood of $100,000. All of the claims against the corporation were filed at the meetings held last week. The only thing wished is that the concern be declared insolvent, and then it will be put up at auction.

R. W. Carter, manager for Mrs. Allien, pro-rietor of the Rancocas Stock Farm, anorietor of the nounces several recent purchases: "We have nounces several recent purchases: "We have just purchased from Joseph E. Widener, Philadelphia, Pa., Holly Queen, gr. f, 2, by The Sailor Prince—Elizabeth, by Rayon d'Or," says Mr. Carter. "From the estate of John McCloskey, Erdenheim Stud, Pa., we bought Iuka, ch. m, 20, by Reform—Sister of Mercy, by War Dance; Sea Puss, ch. m, 8, by Greenland—Hutoka, by Reform—Maggie B. B.; Miss Nellie, ch. m, 12, by Fellowcraft— Hanap (grandam of Elizabeth M.), by King Ban. We have five foals to date, among them very nice chestnut filly by Standing-Miss Lois, by Tea Tray. There are forty-nine yearlings on the farm, and I consider them the most promising lot we have bred since 1896, when we produced Caiman, Sibola, Myakka, Tarolinta, etc. They include full brothers to Caiman, Petra II., Diakka and Jouvence, and full sisters to Dr. Walker, Tantalus Cup, Luetitia, Monte Carlo and Sir Christopher."

Among the owners that will try classic Kentucky Derby on May 2 will be J. W. Schorr and J. F. Schorr, father and son, both of whon have proved important factors oughbreds.

Since midsummer of last racin season the junior Schorr has campaigne Since midsummer of last racing in colors of his own, started and trained his own horses, and has commenced the present auspiciously by winning the California Oaks with Esherin, a filly by the dead sire Esher. Esherin is at present in dead sire Esher. Esherin is at present in California, with the remainder of the string belonging to young Schorr, but she will be shipped to St. Louis in a few weeks, and from there she will be sent to Louisville, to be prepared for her engagements in the Kentucky Derby and Oaks.

Though prejudice and general feeling among horsemen invariably is against fillies winning derbies in the spring of the year, both the senior and junior Schorr think that each has a chance to break the long losing spell that has always attended the running of Schorr candidates that started for Kentucky derbies of the past. Schorr, Sr., has Rightful and Spencer Reif entered, and Rightful will probably be the elder man's representative in the race, while Schorr, Jr., will depend on Esherin and probably Gold Bell, although present prospects point to the filly carrying alone the son's "scarlet, blue 'S' on back, blue hoops and blue cap."

E. E. Smathers, the new owner of McChesney, is having trouble in finding suitable horses with which to re-enforce his small but select string. His agents, having been commissioned to buy crack colts or fillies, have searched the southern tracks, and though several promising two-year-olds and Derby candidates have been offered for sale, the amount wanted has been invariably too steep for Smathers' agents. Gilfain, the the amount wanted has been invariably too steep for Smathers' agents. Gilfain, the three-year-old son of Locohatchee — Dolores, and an eligible for the American Derby, was priced, and it is understood that B. J. Saturday, April 25, being the tenth anniverorganization, the committee has determined to commemorate the occasion by offering a gold-plated cup of the same size The cup becomes the absolute property of the winner.

Ard Patrick, the winner of last year's Epsom Derby, is attracting a great deal of at-tention among racing men at present. It not appear to be known that both Mr. Whitney and Foxhall Keene are competing for him. Capt. S. S. Brown, of Pittsburg, has offered $75,000 for the horse, but the proprietor, John Gubbins, wants double that A great effort will be made to keep amount. the animal in England. Both Mr. Whitney and Captain Brown would take him to Amer ica, but if Foxhall Keene becomes the owner, the horse will stay on the other side. The probability is that a syndicate headed by Mr. Keene will eventually get the horse.

What is regarded as the most promising filly raised at the Melbourne stud of Colonel W. S. Barnes is the Rainbow-Marinette twoyear-old ,which has a very interesting history. She is the first foal of her dam that bids fair to reach the starter's flag, though Marinette is fifteen years old. The latter, a daughter of Audrain, is out of Mollie Cad, an own sister to the dam of Hindoo, and the grandam of Firenzi. For six years, when she first went to the stud, Marinette could not be bred, and in 1897, after being mated to Onaka, she produced the bay filly Pearlfields in 1898, which filly died of pneumonia early in her two-year-old form, without getting a chance to start. She was barren in 1899, but in 1900 she foaled a chestnut colt by Jim o she foaled a chestnut colt by Jim Her bad luck, however, still continued, as he died when a suckling. The filly that is creating co much competition is her foal of 1901.

This youngster, according to trainer Bey Paul, who broke her, can carry 110 pounds and run over the hill in 35½ seconds. She ran this distance pulling up last fall in thirty-seven seconds, and did something no other yearling filly ever accomplished over the Kentucky Association track, running an eighth of a mile through the quarter stretch worth of stakes, including the Coney Island Futurity. Just what sum has been offered for the flying daughter of Rainbow has not been made public, but it is rumored Colonel Barnes has priced the wonder at $8,000.

Sydney Paget was, it is said, the man who offered $20,000 for Africander. The offer was refused. Africander is, on all accounts, looking three-year-old down at Gravesend. It was learned a few days ago that Africander had come under the eye of James B. Haggin and that this veteran turfwanted the son of Star Ruby-Afric Last season Africander was a disappointing colt, but his races, nevertheless, were so good that his owner refused to let him go when he was put up at auction.

Has P. J. Dwyer another Kingston or Hanover in Merry Acrobat, the sterling good son of Handspring—Merry Thought? Many horsemen, especially those who are quartered at Gravesend, are of the opinion that he has, and they have a great deal upon which to found their opinion.

Mr. Dwyer, personally, will not admit that Merry Acrobat is anything but an ordinary, every-day horse. But then, Mr. Dwyer was always modest in talking about his horses, even when such champions as Miss Woodford, Kingston, Hanover, Tremont and a dozen others were sweeping the boards of all the rich stakes. He prefers to let others while his horses do the winning.

Whatever Mr. Dwyer's opinion of the ability of Merry Acrobat may be, certain it is that he thinks more of the colt than he has of any horse in his stable since the gallant Handspring was retired.

"Just you take my word for it," said a Gravesend trainer recently, who, for various reasons, requested that his name be not used in this connection, "that, bar any accident in training, Merry Acrobat will prove a crack this year. I have reason to know that Mr. Dwyer is sweet on him. And he don't waste his sentiment on a no-account horse.'

the present month the bugle call will be eard at the capital, to be followed on April 13 by the Carter Handicap, at Aqueduct, and on May 7, by the Metropolitan at Westchester, these events standing for a continuous round of vacation pleasure until the san gets well started on his return journey to the south. The well regulated turfman has already roused himself from his period of shaken himself together and begun to talk horse, read horse and think horse. To be caught studying the science of winner picking and the casting of equine horoscopes from the conditions that have prevailed across the continent, west and south, are no longer discreditable. The new track will be three-quarters of a mile in circumference. It will ge given a top dressing of sand and loam that will make it one of the best exercising grounds in this section of the country. There has for some years been a demand by horsemen for a track on which yearlings can be broken and exercised. Their presence on the main tracks at the various courses, especially during the time the older horses are at exercise, is not at all desirable, and is more or less a cause of anxiety. This is leaving out such establishments as those of S. S. Brown, Julius Fleischmann, W. B. Jennings, R. A. Smith, and others, who have come to be recognized as identified with the eastern turf. To be sure, J. W. Schorr raced there last season, but his eastern string was not nearly so large and formidable as it will be this year.

Schorr will make a big bid for eastern honors this year. He has a string or horses large enough almost alone to supply material for a small meeting, and by the liberal man-ner in which he has made nominations to the stake events of the various meetings, it must be that he has some crackerjacks among them. He is represented in all the big handicaps, the Carter, Excelsior, Metropolitan, Brooklyn, Suburban, Brighton and Saratoga, with Spencer Reif, Rightful, Janeway, Bob McLean, or some other of his handicap division, and his colors will probably be a factor in the decision of more than one of them. He will begin his eastern campaign at Aqueduct this year, and go right down the line. Eastern owners realize that they will have to beat some of the "running" horses that will carry the Memphis turfman's colors if they wish to save some of the money for

The Chicago combination of M. H. Tichenor & Co. is virtually new to the eastern turf. They raced a few horses at Saratoga two years ago, but they have never been represented on the metropolitan tracks. This year they evidently intend to get right in the game, and, beginning at Morris Park, will race a great deal in the east.
